PAULERSPURY PARISH COUNCIL

Thank you to everyone who litter picked on Saturday 6 April. One collector sadly had 5 full bin bags to dispose of. The proximity of fast food outlets is resulting in more litter being jettisoned from moving vehicles once the food has been consumed. Please take your litter home for disposal.

Alec Wagner – Chairman

Paulerspury songwriting workshop for young people.

Come along to the URC in Paulerspury 28th and 29th May for some fun with friends! If you are aged 8-16, and interested in singing and writing your very own songs, then this is for you!

Amy Clayton, of ActuallyAmy Songwriting, in conjunction with the Paulerspury Players, will be running the workshop, which focuses on writing your own songs, with professional recording equipment and expert coaching. Mixed in will be some team building games and artwork to advertise and promote your songs, Amy can draw out your creative and expressive side over the two days with focus on lyrics writing in groups.

The workshop will run 9.30am-3.30pm each day and prices are at the competitive rate of £36 per young person for the 2 day workshop.

Here is some feedback from previous workshops:

“ My favorite thing about the music workshop was the fact that there was a proper microphone and music equipment which was good as we could hear ourselves, which was a first for me. I think the workshop was very good and I will hopefully be doing more, if I can. Thankyou!”

– Izzy Tansley aged 14.

“I liked the fact that there was a theme, so it was great to be able to base the songwriting around it. It was also nice to work in a group, because then we can share our ideas.”

– Niamh Collins aged 12.

“The workshop was fun, I enjoyed it”

– Ethan Collins aged 11.

It will feature songs and actions from those Hollywood and other Musicals that we know so well. Tickets are £12 Adults, £10 children under 15 and £35 for a family of four (adult or adults plus kids). As for seats, either bring your own or sit on the grass.

THE PAULERSPURY PICTUREDROME.....

.....is closed for the summer but re-opens on Friday 7 November with other performances scheduled for 10 January and 14 March 2014 (yes, 2014 !). It was never my intention to run these film shows to make a profit but there is a modest surplus and after keeping a float for forthcoming shows I intend donating £30 each to the Church and Chapel. I would ask any “regulars” who have not done so to let me have their selections. Thanks.

The Pantry at Potterspury is now under new management and as a result we've had a bit of a revamp and a spruce up inside the shop. We are still a Farm Shop, Butchers and Delicatessen with all of the old favourites and plenty of new ones - a new and improved version - although you'll have to come along and see for yourself!

We stock fresh bread and rolls that are baked on the premises, including some Artisan loaves such as Walnut and Olive & Oregano flavours, a selection of fresh vegetables, fruit and salad items are also available together with free range eggs, butter and cream. You will also find store cupboard items including a wide selection of chutneys, pickles, jams, cooking sauces, bread flours, cakes and biscuits.

The Butchery offers a wide range of top quality locally sourced meats all prepared by our experienced butcher on site. We offer the best of British beef, fine pork and succulent bacon, tender sweet lamb, wild venison (when in season), free range poultry, sausages and beef burgers made by our butcher. Also available is a selection of cooked meats, hams, pies and quiches many of which are freshly made each day on the premises including favourites such as chicken & mushroom and steak & ale.

As a Delicatessen the Pantry offers gourmet foods ranging from pate, goose fat for perfect roast potatoes to Mediterranean delights such as marinated olives and artichokes, houmous and dips.
