BARLEY MOW PUB

As most of you have probably heard, we will be leaving the Barley Mow at the end of October this year. We have come to the end of our five year tenancy with EI Group (formerly Enterprise) which owns the premises. After trying for many months, we have not been able to secure an agreement with them that would give us a fair income for our efforts or offer long term security. Matt's last day in the kitchen will be Sunday 21st October, we will then run the bar only until Sunday 28th October which will be our last day trading. We don't know precisely what will happen to the pub when we leave, but we have been told it will be kept open by temporary managers, whilst being advertised to prospective tenants. This has been a very tough decision for us and we will be really sad to leave. The village has been a wonderful place to live and work and we have really enjoyed being in the heart of this community. We thank all our friends and customers for their support over the last five years.

Thank you, Matt & Hannah

WILLOW SCULPTURE- excellent Christmas present - If anyone wishes to have a willow sculpture for Christmas please place your order before October 20th. Contact Dee on 01327 811487 or call at Orchard Cottage, High Street to see some examples.

Unfortunately, we have had postpone this year's dinner, which was to be in November. The main reason for this is the uncertainty regarding holding this at the Barley Mow, as our splendid publicans, Matt and Hannah, are leaving. We are hoping that the situation will soon become clearer and we can then arrange a date in late February or March, either at the pub or at another venue. Time and other events meant finding an alternative for November was unrealistic.

I have also been asked to publicise an event celebrating the Diamond Anniversary of Stony Stratford Flower Club - A lecture/demonstration "Berries, Blooms and Baubles" by national demonstrator Jonathan Moseley on Wednesday 28th November at 7.30pm at Stantonbury Theatre. Tickets (£15) by post, enc. an s.a.e., from Judy Parker, 26 Oxfield Park Drive, Old Stratford, MK19 6DP. Andy Bartlett
