

PAULERSPURY HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Autumn 2021/ Autumn 2022 PROGRAMME OF EVENTS AND SPEAKERS

Paulerspury Horticultural Society meets at 7:30pm on the second Thursday in each month in Paulerspury Village Hall. Everyone, member or not, is welcome to come to the meetings at which tea, coffee and biscuits are served and a raffle is held.

Below is the programme for the forthcoming year which we hope will tempt you to come along to the meetings.

- 9th September 2021 Medical Detection Dogs – Birgitte Keenan
Come along and find out how dogs can smell illness & potentially fatal health Issues.
- 14th October 2021 Gardening in South Africa – Cliff Schraibman
What are the challenges of gardening in a tropical climate? Cliff reveals all.
- 11th November 2021 National Memorial Arboretum – Peter, a volunteer
Find out how trees can help ensure that those who sacrificed their lives Will always be remembered.
- 9th December 2021 AGM & Christmas get together

2022

- 14th Jan 2022 Antarctica – a journey into ice – Lindy Crocombe
Come along and find out what it's like to cross the Drakes passage! Or sit alongside a penguin or visit the Great White Continent!
- 10th Feb 2022 What's new in seasonal colour? – Stuart Lowen / Ball Colegrave
What fantastic new colours will appear on well known varieties this year? Come along and find out!
- 10th March 2022 The Magic of Hellebores – Andrew Mikolajski
With so many varieties to choose from, find out how to make the best of this early flowering magical plant.
- 14th April 2022 QUIZ & Fizz – come along and test your brain on those gardeners questions! A glass of elderflower fizz for every entry. Teams of 2 or singles. Entry £1. Prizes!
- 12th May 2022 Pot & plant swap – if you have any cuttings or any pots you want to “swap”, bring them along!
- 9th June 2022 What does a Master Thatcher do? Come along and listen to Harry Roberts talk about this amazing skill, from growing the straw to the tools used, and the different styles of thatch!
- 14th July 2022 Possible Garden visit
- 11th August Horticultural Show
- 8th September Growing food, not gluts – Hazel Roberts – how to grow good quality fruit & Vegetables – enough for your needs. Hazel will be bringing a selection of her own pickles, jams etc for sale.
- 13th October The History of gardening in 100 objects – Michael Brown, The Historic Gardener

