THANK YOU to all who helped to make the Church Fete and the Dog Show such a great success on 9th June. There are far too many people to thank individually for the help they gave to the organisers before and on the day, by giving up their time, advertising in the Fete Programme and donating items for sale. Also the support of the School in arranging the Maypole dancing and Matt and Hannah at the Barley Mow for providing the barbeque equipment As a result of everyone’s generosity and that of all who attended to spend so freely on the attractions a net profit to the Church in the region of £4,250 has been achieved as well as a donation of several hundred pounds to the Dog Show’s nominated charity “Dogs for Good.” Well done and thanks to all for making this event the most successful to date. If the person, who bought 3 jars of Josie’s chutney and left them in a bag by the Granny’s Attic stall, would like to claim them they should phone Betty Barnett on 01327 811263.

20th – 27th July has been designated National Church Tourism Week and it is proposed that St James’ Church will be open during the week to allow visitors to look around and hopefully for one or two short talks to be given on its history, architecture and monuments. Look out for posters detailing what is on nearer the date. St James’ has been designated one of the 100 best churches in Northamptonshire due to its architecture and historical connections, so it will be well worthwhile making time to find out more about your local church.

After such shocking weather for the last two years we will do some serious contingency planning in the event of rain, so there's no need to let a grey day put you off!

Beers will be sourced from some great local breweries, including Towcester Mill, Gun Dog Ales in Woodford Halse and Merrimen Brewery in Litchborough. Alongside this we will be featuring some great ciders and if we get the sunshine then we will be getting the Pimm's jugs out!

After the return of the hog roast last year was such a success we will be roasting a whole pig and serving hot pork rolls with homemade stuffing and apple sauce. Look out for posters soon with more info on entertainment and timings, and most importantly get the date in the diary! Hannah & Matt
