PAULERSPURY PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council have noticed that there are many hedges around the parish which are encroaching on to roads and footpaths, and would be grateful if property owners would arrange for them to be trimmed back to ensure the safety of both pedestrians and drivers.

It is very disappointing to note that, despite the installation of three 'poo bins' around the village, thoughtless dog owners are failing to clear up after their pets, often within very short distances of the bins. The problem is particularly prevalent, within a few yards of the bin, on the path leading from Lower Street, Pury End up to Park Lane. The Parish Council is doing its best but needs everyone to help, if Paulerspury parish is to remain a lovely place in which to live.

THE PAULERSPURY PLAYERS' 30th Anniversary Celebration Variety Show Sat 8th Sept

There have been 30 Years of The Paulerspury Players – Oh yes there have! 14,000 panto' seats sold and over £70,000 donated in cash and in kind to local causes over that time. We've decided we really must celebrate such a long and successful run with a rather special show. Some of the original stars of our early shows have agreed to reprise songs, sketches and Music Hall favourites from way back; add in some excellent comedy, humour and music of almost every genre – and you have a unique show that's not to be missed!

September 8th is the date to remember, and I suggest you reserve your tickets early to avoid disappointment. The Show will include: Old Time Music Hall; Folk and Country Music; Jazz and Blues; Barbershop Quartet; Morecombe and Wise and Two Ronnies sketches; Comedy acts – old favourites and a chance to join in - all in the comfort of our village hall with a drinks bar and a sit down meal in the interval.

Our Celebration Variety Show is on September 8th, 7:30pm start, Paulerspury Village Hall. Tickets £12.50 each include buffet supper – Box Office: 01327 811578 or 0845 8334910 or www.paulerspuryplayers.org.uk/boxoffice

The weekend of 1 and 2 September 2018 will see the Alderton Art Festival. This annual event has been running for many years and continues to be a wonderful weekend. Rural Communities Encouraged To Use Online Crime Reporting Facility

Rural residents and workers are being encouraged to use an online reporting form to alert police to any suspicious or criminal activity in their area. Northamptonshire Police's rural crime team, whose remit includes wildlife and heritage crime, wants to hear from people about anything which strikes them as out of the ordinary.

"Don't worry that you're wasting our time. No matter how small an incident, we need to know about it so we have an accurate picture of rural criminal activity to help us take targeted action against it." The rural crime team is especially keen to encourage people to be aware of and report wildlife-related crime. Report crime and suspicious activity by filling out the online reporting form here <https://www.northants.police.uk/webform/online-crime-reporting>

Paulerspury Horticultural Society MAKE-BAKE-GROW Show 2018

In spite of the fear that the hot and dry weather would have made it difficult to produce our normal quantity and quality of exhibits, the show was as colourful and varied as ever, with the added bonus of a larger number of exhibitors, including more children. Many thanks to all involved in whatever way. Great to see Mollie back in the village for the day and presenting the prizes! Special mention must go to Jimmy Adams and Mick Yates for their fantastic vegetables and flowers, to Andrew Barker for the Best Cake in Show, to Zena Pryke for her roses and to Dee Cole for her sugarcraft, which was awarded the Rose Bowl for the Best Exhibit in Show. Other winners included Jose Lepper (Fruit & Flowers Cup), Sue Starr (Floral Art Cup), Pam Weston (Brenda Slack Memorial Prize) and Jenny Brooks (Percy Foster Memorial Prize). The Children's Prize was won by Henry Strange.

If you did not enter or come along this year, please put the date in your diary for next year (10th August 2019). It is not a show just for experts – anyone can enter and win, or just enter and marvel at the skill of others!! There is such a variety of classes, there must be something that you can have a go at!! Andy Bartlett – Show Secretary
